Lycée Marie Curie, Versailles EDS ANGLAIS

Spécialité LLCE AMC – Classe de PREMIERE

The English-speaking world

What you could read, watch or listen to in order to start preparing your EDS AMC class:

1) Web TV and web radio:

- the BBC website (www.bbc.co.uk): see the menu at the top of the screen (News, Work life, Future, etc.). You can read written articles and watch TV reports. You can also have access to podcasts from all the BBC radio stations.

- CNN (edition.cnn.com): the American TV channel with written articles and videos.

- the National Public Radio (npr.org): an American web radio with articles and podcasts)

- Radio.Garden: an app which you can access on your PC as well as on your smartphone, to listen to plenty of radio stations all around the world, even Australia, New-Zealand or Canada)

- YouTube (youtube.com): of course! Plenty of reports, trailers, etc. You can use the subtitles to help you at first. Make sure you check your sources.

You can also:

- watch English-speaking channels at www.filmon.com/
- try Voice of America: https://learningenglish.voanews.com/ or also https://www.pbs.org/
- listen to some videos from Ted talks: long videos on a variety of subjects (subtitles and script available): https://www.ted.com/
- learn by watching film extracts on the app QIOZ which is on the "ENT"

2) Newspapers:

- British newspapers like The Guardian (www.theguardian.com) or the Independent (www.independent.co.uk) have interesting (and still free) websites.

- There are also the New York Times (www.nytimes.com) and the Huffington Post (www.huffingtonpost.com), and others!

- Online reading on LeKiosk (go to http://0782567s.esidoc.fr/ , click on LeKiosk and use your "ENT" login and password): you can read articles from Vocable (full English).

3) Books: you can use those two books if you want to start learning more about the British and American civilizations.

- Civilisation britannique, Sarah Pickard, Langues pour tous, éditions Pocket, 2020 (ISBN : 2266295594)

- Civilisation des Etats-Unis en synthèse, M-C Pauwels, Hachette Education, 2017 (ISBN :2017009849)
